

This form is for you to express your views on the structure, content, and presentation of the material of this course. Your constructive comments will be appreciated. It is intended that your comments will remain unread until the final course grades are assigned, after which they will be read by your instructor and then forwarded to the Department. Please feel free to write in either Thai or English. – Thank you.

1. Attendance and reading (How many classes did you go to? How much work did you do? etc.):

2. Conduct of class meetings (How organized and prepared was your instructor? Were explanations clear? Did classroom atmosphere encourage you to participate and learn actively?):

3. Readings (Comment on the coursebook and novel Where the Crawdads Sing. How clear was the reading? Were they well-organized? How relevant were they to the course? Were they interesting, useful, too much, too difficult, etc.? Are there some works or topical material you would like to have read?):

4. Assignments and tests (How related were they to the course? How well did they cover things learned in class? What are your opinions about the final paper? Did you find the reading selections for the exams too long? too difficult? Do you think enough time was given to read them? Comment on the frequency and quantity of assignments and exams. How was the grading? Did you think it was fair?):

5. Reading responses (How often did you hand them in? Did you find them useful?):

6. Other course material and activities (How useful were the handouts, creative writing, 10-minute beginning-of-class writing, fiction and poetry challenges, consultation, Central Library exploration, An Inspector Calls performance, group discussion, Lit Breakfast, course webpage, etc.):

7. Did you get enough helpful comments on your performance, your writing, etc.?

8. What did you hope to learn from the course that you feel you haven't?
